"	"	Case set for hearing June 27th 1889 at 2 P. M.	.25
"	27	Parties in Court with their counsel and ready for trial. Mrs C. McCullough & Mrs Keller sworn and testified for the Plaintiff	.50
		Defendant moved that the case be dismissed on the ground 1st That you the City Recorder have no right to appeal in this case for Justice Hogue; the law only authorizes ~~that~~ one Justice to call in another in case of said Justice's absence or disability. 2nd That this Court has no jurisdiction by virtue of the fact that the complaint in this case has not been verified. Both motions overruled.	1.00
		On motion of the defendant the case was continued until June 28th 1889 at 9 A.M.	.25
June	28	Defendant refused to put any witnesses on the stand or testify himself
		Thereupon the Attorney for the Plaintiff asks that judgment be rendered for the Plaintiff for the sum of $36 trebled as alleged to be due as damages & in all the sum of $108 and his costs, and this Court having duly considered the matter finds that the Plaintiff C. McCullough is entitled to recover of the Defendant treble the amount of rents as alleged to be due as damages & in all the sum of One hundred & eight Dollars together with his costs as follows Justice Costs $7.00 Constable Costs $2.45 Together with possession of the premises described in the complaint herein Wherefore judgment is hereby entered in favor of the Plaintiff C.
